

Know Your Rights

If ICE Agents Show Up At Your Door:

- Don't open the door, but be calm. You have rights.
- Ask what they are there for, (and ask for an interpreter if you need one).
- If they ask to enter, ask if they have a warrant signed by a judge* and if so, ask to see it (through a window or slipped under the door).
- If they do NOT have a warrant signed by a judge*, you may refuse to let them in. Ask them to leave any information at your door.
- If they force their way in, don't resist. Tell everyone in the residence to remain silent.
- If you are arrested, remain silent and do not sign anything until you speak to a lawyer.

*An ICE administrative warrant (form I-200, I-205) does not allow them to enter your home without your consent.

ACLU KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS
ENFORCEMENT

You have the right to:

REMAIN SILENT

You are not obligated to answer any questions about your immigration status, where you were born, or about your criminal history. ICE can use anything you say against you.

SPEAK TO AN ATTORNEY

If arrested, you have the right to speak to an attorney that YOU find or have.

The government will not assign an attorney to you in matters of immigration.

NOT SIGN ANY DOCUMENT

Do not sign any document that you do not know what it states, is not in a language you best know how to read in, or there isn't an attorney present to explain to you what you are signing.
