

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Supervising Attorney, Securing Safety for Youth and Families (SSYF)

Reports to: Immigrants' Rights Managing Attorney

Bargaining Unit: No

FLSA: Exempt

Type: Full Time

Position Summary

This posting is for a position within the Securing Safety for Youth and Families (SSYF) team, which sits within the Immigrants' Rights program. The SSYF team leads our work in representing youth and families who are fleeing violence and persecution, through direct representation and partnerships with local school districts and community advocates. SSYF work primarily involves non-detained removal defense of unaccompanied minors and family units, as well as representation before USCIS in affirmative applications, including asylum, U nonimmigrant visas and Special Immigration Juvenile Status.

Responsibilities:

Centro Legal is seeking an experienced attorney for our Securing Safety for Youth and Families team. The supervising attorney will carry a large but reduced caseload consisting primarily of non-detained unaccompanied minors and family units in removal proceedings, and will supervise a designated team of staff members in the provision of immigration legal services.

Primary responsibilities will include:

- Directly representing unaccompanied minors and family units in removal proceedings before the San Francisco and Sacramento Immigration Courts and Board of Immigration Appeals;
- Preparing, reviewing, and submitting applications, legal briefs, and supporting documentation for cases involving asylum, withholding of removal, relief under the Convention Against Torture, U visa, VAWA, cancelation of removal, adjustment of status with applicable waivers, and Special Immigrant Juvenile Status, including state court petitions;
- Conducting telephonic and/or in-person intakes and consultations, including at various school sites, and working with the SSYF team to assess cases for possible representation and referrals;
- Supervising, mentoring, and ensuring ongoing professional and leadership development for a diverse group of staff attorneys, DOJ accredited representatives, and paralegals, including holding regular check-ins and prioritizing self-care and wellbeing in the assignment of case work;
- Conducting Know-Your-Rights presentations to community members;
- Presenting to government and non-government agencies; community-based organizations on changes in immigration law;
- Representing Centro Legal at collaborative and stakeholder meetings with local and regional partners;
- Identifying potential federal litigation cases arising from direct services work and assisting in impact litigation efforts in federal district and circuit courts for placement with pro bono attorney or other non-profit litigation partners; and
- Assisting in determining appropriate case stories for use in reports, advocacy materials, and public education and providing information and interviews to media on current immigration law and policy topics.

Qualifications

The applicant must profoundly share Centro Legal's mission and vision of racial, economic and social justice. Qualifications include:

- J.D; admitted and in good standing with a State bar; as this position entails representation of minors in state court proceedings, CA bar admission is strongly preferred;
- Fluency in Spanish required;
- Minimum of 3 years of experience in removal defense required;
- Experience representing of asylum seekers and/or unaccompanied minors preferred;
- Excellent writing, research, analytical, and verbal communication skills;
- A demonstrated commitment to immigrant justice and public interest law;
- A record of moving legal cases forward and demonstrated ability to build and manage a heavy caseload;
- Strong leadership skills, preferably with experience supervising other attorneys and legal advocates;
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively on projects with diverse groups of people;
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity and inclusion within the office and a personal approach that values all individuals and respects differences regarding race, ethnicity, age, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religion, ability, socio-economic circumstance, immigration status, and record of arrest or conviction;
- Familiarity in working with clients in crisis or who are recent trauma survivors; and
- Willingness to conduct training and outreach activities in the community.

Compensation

Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience ranging from $78,413-$87,823. We provide a generous benefits package, including life insurance, LTD, leave policies, vacation, and December holiday office closure at full pay.

To Apply

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. Submit: 1) cover letter, 2) resume, and 3) a list of three professional references. Include “Supervising Attorney – Immigration- SSYF” in the subject line. About Centro Legal de la Raza

Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Oakland, California, Centro Legal de la Raza (Centro Legal) is a comprehensive legal services and advocacy organization protecting and advancing the rights of immigrant and low-income communities of color through multilingual representation, education, and advocacy. We envision a world where all people enjoy dignity, respect and the freedom to move; where the most marginalized voices lead movements for change; where migration builds bridges; where communities remain together; where all people find safety; and where carceral systems are abolished. We ground our work in principles of anti-racism, community and client-centered practices and intersectionality.

Immigrants' Rights Legal Practice

Centro Legal's Immigrants' Rights practice encompasses full-scope direct representation before the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), including the Immigration Courts and the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA); in affirmative applications filed with US Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS); and before the federal courts of appeals. Centro Legal has served as both class counsel and organizational plaintiffs in impact litigation mounting constitutional, statutory and administrative law challenges to immigration policies. We also engage in and support local, state, and national advocacy efforts in the fight for immigrants' rights.

We are committed to building a diverse team that reflects the values and experiences of the communities we serve. We strive to create an inclusive and supportive work environment. For more information, please visit our website: <https://centrolegal.org/>
