

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Tenants' Rights Directing Attorney

Reports to: Executive Director

Bargaining Unit: No

FLSA: Exempt

Type: Full Time

Position Summary:

Our Tenants' Rights Practice works to stop displacement and stabilize our communities through eviction defense, drop-in legal clinics, affirmative litigation, administrative hearings before rent boards, know-your-rights presentations and an array of community outreach, and policy initiatives. We are seeking an experienced attorney who will bring leadership and innovation to our fearless and dynamic team of Tenants' Rights advocates.

Primary responsibilities will include:

- Overseeing the provision of tenants' rights direct legal services, including the design and implementation of systems for case management, quality control, and data tracking;
- Training, mentoring, supervising, and supporting ongoing development of a diverse staff of attorneys, advocates, volunteers, and interns;
- Assign and help manage supervisees' caseloads at a rate that promotes self-care and wellbeing;
- Developing and advancing program strategy in collaboration with the other members of the tenants' rights practice;
- Working in partnership with Centro Legal's Litigation Director to identify cases and oversee tenants' rights affirmative litigation;
- As part of the Senior Management Team, assisting Executive Director with growth and development of the organization, including through leadership in occasional strategic projects to support organizational priorities;
- Supporting the practice's budgeting and fundraising efforts, including preparation of the annual budget, grant applications, and grant reports;
- Building and strengthening administrative infrastructure of the program to ensure relevant and efficient protocols;
- Tracking, analyzing, and reporting data on program metrics, including case and outreach deliverables;
- Serving as a media contact and expert spokesperson for Centro Legal's tenants' rights practice, as needed;
- Managing limited independent caseload consisting of directly representing low-income tenants in unlawful detainer trials and appeals and at rent board hearings;

- Supervise drop-in clinics and know-your-rights workshops in order to build power in communities, monitor trends in the displacement crisis, and identify potential plaintiffs for affirmative litigation;
- Presenting to and working with key stakeholders on changes in law, policy and practice; and
- Overseeing collaborative work with local, regional, and state partners on policy initiatives, funding, and strategic litigation efforts.

Desired Qualifications:

The applicant must profoundly share Centro Legal’s mission and vision of racial, economic and social justice. Additional qualifications include:

- J.D., admitted and in good standing with the California bar;
- Fluency in Spanish, Mandarin, Cantonese, or Vietnamese preferred, but not required;
- Minimum of 5 years of relevant experience in housing law or direct legal services;
- Trial experience strongly preferred;
- Strong leadership skills and experience managing attorneys, fellows, or interns;
- Knowledge and adherence to community and movement lawyering principles;
- Excellent writing, research, analytical, and verbal communication skills;
- A demonstrated commitment to civil liberties, tenants’ rights, and public interest law;
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity within the office and a personal approach that values all individuals and respects differences regarding race, ethnicity, age, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religion, ability, socio-economic circumstance, immigration status, and record of arrest or conviction;
- Familiarity in working with clients in crisis or who are trauma survivors;
- Willingness to conduct training and outreach activities in the community as needed; and
- Demonstrated ability to work cooperatively on projects with lawyers, other staff members across organization, and diverse community organizations, stakeholders and policymakers.

Compensation and Benefits:

Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience ranging from $108,914 to $115,187. We provide a generous benefits package, including life insurance, LTD, leave policies, vacation, and December holiday office closure at full pay.
