

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: ACILEP Supervising Attorney

Reports to: Immigrants' Rights Managing or Co-Directing Attorney

Bargaining Unit: No

FLSA: Exempt

Type: Full-time

Position Summary

ACILEP is a countywide rapid-response initiative anchored by Centro Legal de la Raza that provides emergency legal support, community education, and verified reporting of ICE activity to help protect immigrant communities from detention and deportation. The program operates a hotline and a coordinated volunteer network to ensure timely, accurate responses to community reports and urgent situations.

The Rapid Response Supervising Attorney will work with ACILEP's legal team to provide the services listed above, as well as working in close collaboration with ACILEP's larger team, assisting with follow-up with community members that call the hotline, when appropriate; and supporting community education and outreach efforts. This position involves the management and direct supervision of staff as well as projects within ACILEP's legal program; as well as close collaboration with the co-directing attorneys and managing attorney to ensure staff's adherence to substantive and administrative case management protocols and to monitor compliance with contractual requirements. The ideal candidate is interested in joining a dynamic advocacy and defense effort that is part of the larger movement to defend our communities.

Primary Responsibilities

- Supervise, mentor, and support professional development of attorneys, DOJ-accredited representatives, advocates, legal support staff, volunteers, and interns handling removal defense and affirmative immigration matters, including regular check-ins, performance evaluations, and attention to workload balance, self-care, and wellbeing.
- Provide direct immigration legal services to clients and community members, including full-scope representation before USCIS, EOIR, ICE, and state and federal courts; limited-scope representation and pro se assistance for individuals vulnerable to enforcement or removal; and comprehensive immigration legal consultations.
- Lead and participate in community-based legal work, including legal orientations, Know-Your-Rights presentations, workshops, clinics, and off-site initiatives, both directly and in a supervisory capacity.
- Provide legal services through ACILEP's Rapid Response team, including:
 - Emergency response to immigration enforcement in Alameda County;
 - Representation of detained community members before DHS agencies, EOIR, and state and federal courts;
 - Preventative and direct legal services for non-detained individuals;
 - Community-based consultations, limited-scope services, and pro se assistance, including work connected to detention facilities.

- Support administration and management of ACILEP legal programs at Centro, including project coordination, staff oversight, monitoring of case deliverables, and data tracking and reporting.
- Develop and maintain partnerships with ACILEP coalition members and local, regional, and national partners, including participation in coalition meetings, delivery of trainings on immigration law and policy, engagement with funders and stakeholders, and collaboration on policy, funding, and litigation initiatives under the direction of ACILEP's Managing Attorney.
- Perform other related duties as assigned by managing or directing attorneys within Centro's Immigrants' Rights Practice.

Qualifications

The applicant must profoundly share Centro Legal's mission and vision of racial, economic and social justice. Additional qualifications include:

- J.D.; admitted and in good standing with a State Bar (California Bar membership preferred).
- Demonstrated commitment to immigrant justice.
- Language requirement: Fluency in English and Spanish strongly preferred. We may also consider candidates who are fluent in English and another language spoken by immigrant communities in Alameda County.
- Minimum of three (3) years of post-J.D. experience in immigration law practice, including substantial experience in removal defense.
- Strong leadership skills and experience, including supervision or mentorship in removal defense, asylum, SIJS, and/or supervision of paralegals or law students; experience delivering presentations or trainings is strongly preferred.
- Excellent writing, research, analytical, organizational, and verbal communication skills.
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively with attorneys, staff, and diverse community organizations.
- Familiarity with trauma-informed lawyering practices when working with survivors of violence and other forms of trauma.
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion, and a personal approach that values all individuals and respects differences regarding race, ethnicity, age, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religion, ability, socio-economic circumstance, immigration status, and record of arrest or conviction.
- Willingness to conduct trainings and outreach throughout Alameda and Contra Costa Counties and to travel to detention centers within California.

Compensation

This is an exempt full time position that is competitive and commensurate with experience ranging from $89,503-$99,953.
